

Job Title: Plant Engineer

Location: Williams Lake, BC

Reports to: Operations Manager

Summary: Plant Engineer is an entry level position, subject to taking in-house progressive training to learn basic operations and maintenance skills. The Plant Engineer is expected possess their Fourth Class Power Engineering Certificate and is expected to participate in a progression program that includes rotating into a shift work environment.

Job Description: With safety as a priority, the Plant Engineer is expected to perform the following tasks:

- Operate the following heavy equipment - D9 Dozer, Front End Loader, Fork Lift, and Skid Steer;
- Performing plant clean-up and preventative maintenance activities;
- Assist Operations and Maintenance crews;
- Other duties as assigned by Shift Engineer or Plant Management.

Requirements: Successful candidates will have a proven track record for teamwork and interpersonal skills. Candidates must be in good physical health to meet the demands of the position, and will be required to take safety and job related training.

- Grade 12 diploma or G.E.D;
- Possession of valid BC Driver's license required;
- Heavy equipment, dozer or loader, experience preferred;
- Industrial or Power Engineer experience preferred;
- Standard First Aid training an asset;
- Fourth Class Power Engineer Certificate of Qualification within 18 months of employment;

Hours of Work: Shift work will be required as outlined in the Union's Collective Agreement.

Class Code: 6203 PE-A

Wage: $27.09 per hour.

Posting Dates: February 13, 2014 – February 23, 2014